

Households in villages and hamlets (26%) were twice as likely to live in non-decent homes compared to those in urban areas (14%) and towns/fringe areas (12%) in 2022-23

This disparity is linked to the older, less energy-efficient housing in rural areas, which often has higher levels of disrepair and serious hazards.