

Private renters (12%, 572,000) were most likely to live in homes with Category 1 hazards, followed by owner occupiers (9%, 1.3 million), local authority renters (5%, 80,000), and housing association renters (3%, 83,000).