

In 2023-24, 37% of households included someone with a long-term illness or disability, an increase from 34% in 2019-20.