

Infants living in cold homes were 41% more likely to experience any respiratory illness and 47% more likely to have wheeze